FAQ & AGENCY STANDARDS

MODELTUDE AGENCY LLC | CORPORATE & COMMERCIAL TALENT

Modeltude Agency LLC operates exclusively as a B2B commercial talent development and placement firm. We prioritize high-character, reliable professionals over traditional fashion metrics. To maintain our executive standard with corporate clients, we strictly enforce the following operational guidelines.

1. Submissions & Onboarding

Does Modeltude Agency charge submission or "model mill" fees?

No. We operate with high ethical integrity. We do not charge upfront submission fees, nor do we force our talent to purchase predatory photo packages or mandatory training courses to join the roster. We make money by successfully placing you with corporate clients.

How are talent classified?

All talent placed through Modeltude Agency LLC operate as 1099 Independent Contractors. You are responsible for managing your own schedule, transportation, and applicable independent tax filings. You are not a W-2 employee of the agency or the corporate client.

What are the age requirements and youth safeguards?

We represent talent nationwide across multiple age tiers. For our Junior Innovators (Ages 9–12) and Teen Vanguard (Ages 13–17) divisions, we enforce strict educational and safety boundaries. A legal parent or guardian must explicitly authorize all submissions, sign the representation agreement, and be physically present at all bookings and casting calls.

2. Booking, Travel & Expenses

What is the expectation for scheduling and reliability?

Our corporate and luxury real estate clients demand absolute professionalism. We require prompt communication, punctual arrivals, and readiness for short-notice deployments within your primary market (e.g., the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex). Repeated tardiness or no-shows will result in immediate removal from the national roster.

How are travel expenses handled?

Talent are expected to cover their own standard local commuting expenses within their primary metro area. If a corporate client specifically requests you for an out-of-state campaign or national tradeshow, travel stipends, lodging, and flight arrangements will be negotiated and covered by the client as part of your booking contract.

3. Legal & Protections

What is the Non-Circumvention Policy?

Modeltude Agency invests significant resources to broker high-end corporate relationships. If you are introduced to a client through our agency, all future bookings, extensions, and referrals with that client must be processed through Modeltude. Direct dealing or bypassing the agency violates our binding Non-Circumvention agreement and carries legal and financial penalties.

How does Modeltude protect my likeness from Artificial Intelligence (AI)?

We stand firmly against the unauthorized digital replication of our talent. Our client contracts explicitly forbid the scraping, scanning, or creation of "AI Digital Twins" using your likeness without a separate, clearly defined, and highly compensated licensing agreement. Your face and physical presence remain your exclusive property.
